

The Mendocino Hotel and Garden Suites is located on the rugged North Coast of California which extends north of Marin and Sonoma counties, and is ranked as one of the five major scenic destinations in all the northwestern United States, according to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the California Automobile Association (CSAA). The town is 3 hours north of San Francisco along the highly scenic Andersen Valley which is the home of over three dozen boutique wineries producing some of the most highly regarded Pinot Noir and Sparkling wines in the country. The hotel and the town of only 1200 inhabitants is registered in the National Historic Trust and is considered the main focal point and the most popular tourist-oriented North coast destination.

Travelers who select the Mendocino Hotel experience the only full service hotel in this historical village overlooking the Pacific Ocean—featuring deluxe accommodations and an award winning restaurant and wine list. Travelers may choose a suite with a crackling fireplace, antiques, Oriental carpets, down comforters and marble vanities nestled among 2 acres of bucolic gardens and dramatic ocean views.

The Hotel is “Highly Recommended” by Frommer’s and is currently rated the #1 hotel in Mendocino by TripAdviser.com. The highly regarded ZAGATSURVEY 2007 summarizes the hotel with the favorable comment: “Victorian delights abound at this charming, period Mendocino Hotel with a dark-wood interior and a Californian menu that’s “right on the mark”; order a cocktail and hang out in the bar under a stained-glass dome and drink in the lovely Old West ambiance”

Graham Reid, Traveler Writer for the New Zealand Herald, recently wrote, “At the Mendocino Hotel and Garden Suites on Main we take a garden room (deep bath, open fire and the biggest bed I’ve ever seen) and then make for the Victorian dining room. It breathes sumptuousness and old world sophistication.” June 15, 2007

The 51 recently-refreshed rooms may accommodate up to a total of 120 guests, and the meeting facilities may serve up to 350. An additional 44 rooms are offered at the Hotel’s sister property the Hill House Inn—a hotel made famous in the TV series “Murder She Wrote”. A state of the art media and conference center is available on site. Rates for guests range from US $89.00 per room to $395.00 for a suite with Ocean or Garden views. Menu selections or catered events are prepared by a professional executive chef.
